A white Bull Terrier dog is sitting on a brown and white striped rug. The dog is looking to the left with its tongue out. It is surrounded by a large pile of shredded white paper. To the left of the dog is a large yellow cushion. In the background, there is a grey sofa with a grey blanket draped over it, and a potted plant with green leaves in a woven basket. The text "La independencia es audaz" is overlaid in the center of the image.
